Inspector Lester and the Governor have been in close conference today. Though not disposed to talk for publication, Inspector Lester admitted, when questioned, that he had recommended the removal of Supt. Letcher. Further he would not say, and the grounds on which he bases his recommendation are not known. It is stated the report will be made public this evening. It is also stated the governor does not agree with the recommendations of Inspector Lester and is not disposed to accept the recommendation. It is not believed the governor will remove Superintendent Letcher, believing him to be the victim more or less of malignant spite work.

FATALLY BURNED.

A Boy's Clothes Catch Fire at Cairo.

A little boy 12 or 13 years old, who lives with Mrs. G. W. Cary, at Fourth and Walnut streets as an adopted child, was perhaps fatally burned yesterday afternoon. With other boys he was playing in the Big Four railroad yards where oil tank cars were standing. One of the tanks leaked and the boy got a foot and trousers leg saturated with the oil. On his way home he stopped at a bonfire some other boys had built, and the oil in his clothing caught fire. He was fearfully burned on the leg, his hands and elsewhere, and is in a critical condition.—Cairo Argus.

HABEAS CORPUS.

A Writ May be Taken Out in the House Case.

It is likely that the attorneys for the defense in the case against Hannah House, charged with murder, will in a few days take out a writ of habeas corpus for the purpose of securing bail for their client.

Attorney W. A. Reed was asked regarding it this afternoon and said that he could not say what would be done, but intimated that an attempt would be made in a few days to obtain bail.

GENERAL LEE

Suggests a Demand For the Release of Sangüily.

FLOTILLA OF BOATS SUNK.

With Heavy Loss of Life to the Spanish Occupants.

SECRETARY OLNEY MAKES A DEMAND.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Julio Sangüily, a citizen of the United States, who has been condemned by Spanish authorities to perpetual imprisonment in chains in Cuba, was the subject of a letter and correspondence sent by the President to the Senate today.

The report says that representations have been made to the Spanish government, which, it is believed, will not be without effect; that the case seems to be one in which executive clemency may be reasonably exercised. The correspondence contains letters stating that Julio Sangüily had been arrested on suspicion of corresponding against the government, and the American consul, fearing that he might be immediately shot, represented to the Captain General that he was an American citizen. As he was not captured with arms in his hands, it was sought to have him tried by a civil court instead of a court-martial. The Captain General, says Consul General Williams, evinced displeasure when he learned that Sangüily had been recognized as an American citizen by both governments, saying that Americans were conspiring against Spain in the United States, and he would shoot every one found with arms in his hands against the government of the island, regardless of the consequences. After some correspondence, the cases of Sangüily and Aguirre were transferred to civil jurisdiction, and the delay in their trial was attributed to their nationality, and after many efforts to have Sangüily's case come to trial, the secretary of state, on September 3, last, demanded his immediate trial or release.

Olney's Threat.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—The American sugar planters in Cuba have at last taken a decided stand. On their demand, Secretary Olney has cabled to the Madrid government that the grinding of sugar cane on American plantations in Cuba must be permitted to proceed immediately, or claims against Spain for heavy damages from January 1 will be filed at the state department. A report came back from Madrid that Gen. Weyler had been instructed to countermand his order prohibiting sugar grinding, and that the work might begin forthwith. On the strength of this an agent of the sugar planters left recently for Cuba to see Gen. Weyler and to start the grinding.

FLOTILLA OF BOATS SUNK.

Key West, Feb. 2.—Another marine disaster to the Spaniards is reported. This time the navy department will not be charged with it, as one of Gen. Weyler's own river expeditions was badly used up. Fifteen boats are said to have been sunk, 100 men reported to have been killed and missing and the number of wounded is put at seventy-five.

Hearing that the insurgents had fortified some heights near Paez, on the River Cannes, Santa Clara Province, Gen. Weyler sent Col. Seryes with 300 men in small boats to capture the place and destroy the forts. After proceeding up the river about twenty miles, on rounding a sharp bend, a heavy fire was opened on the expedition with rifles and a 6-pound field piece. The river there was shallow and narrow, the channel being near the bank where the insurgents were. The fourth shot from the cannon sunk one boat. A moment later another boat was sunk. The Spaniards leaped out of the boats, waded to land, and charged the insurgents, who were protected by the high banks and the thick brush. The Spanish drove the insurgents off, but could not capture the cannon.

Resuming the journey, the expedition was harassed at every bend in the river. A few miles from Paez the Cubans opened fire with two cannon. Six boats were quickly sunk, and then the rebel rifles played havoc with the Spanish soldiers as they struggled in the water. Four of the wounded men were caught by alligators near the shore and dragged under. Col. Seryes was forced to order a retreat, which speedily became a rout. Hastily the boats pulled back, but the Cubans pursued, keeping up a constant fire, and sinking more boats. Had not re-enforcements come to the Spanish ten miles from Cienfuegos not 100 men would have escaped.

Gen. Weyler has made no official report of this disaster.

BAD AND BLOODY.

Joe Smith Arrested This Afternoon.

Joe Smith, of the county, who was robbed by Barbara Rankin a few weeks ago at a Court street resort, was taken to the city hall very badly beaten up this afternoon. He had an altercation in an East Court street saloon and had blood all over him when the smoke of battle cleared away. The police had not investigated the case up to press time.

LITTLE EXCITEMENT

In Graves County Over the Reported Assault.

The Accused Arrested in Tennessee and Brought to Fulton.

John Roland, colored, was captured last night near Hatchie, Tenn., on a charge of criminally assaulting a daughter of a farmer named Allcock, of Clear Springs, Graves county, Saturday afternoon.

The girl is but five years old, and the assault is reported as being an unusually revolting one. The negro was employed on the farm of Allcock and immediately after his diabolical deed skipped out.

He was last night brought up to Fulton, where he is in jail. The report has not become general in Graves county or the excitement would be overwhelming. It is not known what will be done with the man, or when he will be taken to Mayfield to await trial.

Advices from Mayfield this afternoon state that a posse of men have gone down after the darkey, and if taken to Mayfield his life may be imperiled. As yet particulars of the alleged outrage are meagre.

CITY WINS

In the Suit of Nick Grief Damages.

VERDICT RETURNED AT NOON.

This Will Probably Discourage Other Prospective Litigants.

OTHER CIRCUIT COURT NOTES.

The jury in the case of Nick Grief against the city of Paducah for $5000 damages returned a verdict at noon, deciding the hotly fought case in favor of the city, the defendant.

The jury had been in consultation since Saturday at noon, and it had begun to look like it would disagree.

The case began over a week ago, and in addition to consuming a week's time, cost a great deal. The verdict was no surprise.

The action was brought on account of a cess pool which the city failed from time to time to abate. The alleged nuisance was located near second and Washington streets, and formerly belonged to gentlemen, who, rather than fill it up donated it to the city. There was always more or less complaint about it, and as a climax finally the damage suit was filed.

If a verdict had been rendered against the city, every one else residing in the locality might proceed against the city and if not awarded similar amounts, would at least necessitate the expenditure of hundreds of dollars in court costs. It would have made the city a helpless victim of all who lived near enough to complain of the nuisance and bring suit for damages, and perhaps all will commend the verdict of the jury.

The verdict was signed by two-thirds of the jury only, the others dissenting.

The case of John R. Vickers against J. J. Smith was continued until the seventh day of the next term.

The case of Mrs. Nancy Bailey against the People's Street Railway Company for damages, was continued.

In the case of G. B. Simon against Max Levy, for a bill of goods which the defendant claims he returned, a verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff.

The report of the commissioner in the case of J. W. Farmer against C. L. Ethridge was confirmed.

The suit of Mrs. Josephine Spaulding against Oliver Allard to break the late J. L. Allard's will was continued until the next term.

THE "Register" doesn't seem to kick because the council does not consider it a newspaper, the only ones mentioned being the Sun and News. But that is nothing. The whole town seems to agree with the council in that particular.

MARK HANNA certainly congratulate himself on having served a purpose since the beginning of the last presidential campaign. He has served as a convenient target for abuse, of which the Democratic newspapers would otherwise have been sadly in need. The unblemished public record of the presidential candidate was invulnerable, but Hanna was practically unknown. Anything could be said about him with impunity.

The "Register" cannot find space to publish the well written letter of resignation presented by Dr. Isbelle recently appointed a member of the board of health, presumably because the color of the Doctor's skin is not of the hue approved by that paper.
This letter would have been found almost as interesting as some of the plate with which the "Register's" "space" is occupied. But on second thought, the "Register" can hardly be blamed for the omission, since the doctor's elegant diction and forceful expression would so far surpass anything that has appeared in the columns of that paper, as to render it impolite to give it place.

In making its report of the council proceedings of last night our morning contemporary so far departs from legitimate journalism as to incorporate into its report severe strictures on the council for its action in electing public printer, forgetting in the exuberance of its wrath that the only proper place for such strictures is where a sane person would look for them—in its editorial columns. But then again is skin to madness, and the "Register" is exceedingly angry just now, not because, as it would have its readers believe, the dear people have been imposed upon, but because the present council has a head of its own and could not be brow-beaten into a course of action sponsored by that paper. Had the "Register" been in line for the printing in the ordinary course there would have been nothing wrong in its view in the action of the council in voting to award it the printing. But there's the rub.

ALDERMAN BARNES was elected to the council as a Republican, having the united support of the entire Republican party in the city. It was naturally supposed he would be found working with the Republicans for the advancement of the interests of the party. Instead of this he has shown a disposition to throw obstacles in the way of the advancement of the party interests. Apparently he would move heaven and earth to prevent the organ of his party in the city from getting a few crumbs that fall from the municipal table, though it is entitled to them by every rule of political procedure, and by every test the law applies.
He goes so far as absolutely to nominate and vote for a Democratic newspaper to defeat the organ of his own party. There are a few thousand Republicans in the city of Paducah and McCracken county who will remember Mr. Barnes' record as a Republican when he again goes before them for their support. They expected of him a fealty to his party which he has not shown. They demand that being elected as a Republican he shall show his colors on proper occasions and not cast his lot with the enemies of his party.

It is expected the special session of congress, which it is said will be convened on the 15th of March, will break the record in its work with reference to the proposed new tariff legislation. Messrs. Dingley and Hanna, it is said, venture the prediction that the bill will become a law within sixty days after congress convenes. This would far exceed any record ever made in congress with legislation of so much importance and strong doubt is expressed that it will be found possible to complete the legislation in that time. It is pointed out that after the McKinley bill had been prepared in committee and given to the house more than five and one-half months were consumed in its consideration before it finally reached President Harrison.
In like manner there was consumed in consideration of the Wilson bill more than eight months after its introduction. But a number of things are to be taken into consideration in connection with the present proposed legislation which will have a very strong tendency to hasten its conclusion. In the first place the urgent necessity for early action, which is conceded by all protectionists, will tend to influence all Republicans in congress to hasten the bill to its passage as rapidly as due regard to proper deliberation will admit. In the second place this will be practically the only business before congress, by common consent, until it shall have been disposed of. Then the disposition to clog and retard it by opponents of this class of legislation, it is believed, will be wanting in a large measure.
A number of silver Republicans will cordially act with the other Republicans in furthering the measure while some of the Democrats, at least, are determined to give the Republicans liberty to try their penance. It is to be hoped, therefore, that before the month of June shall have rolled around the measure will have become a law and all doubt and uncertainty of business will have been set at rest.

MCKINLEY VS. WILSON.

The deficit in Government revenues under the Wilson tariff bill have in 29 months reached the grand aggregate of $126,877,226.02. A comparison of the revenues received by the government under the McKinley law and those received under the Wilson law is exceedingly interesting and instructive. The comparison is entirely fair and reasonable, for the reason that the two acts went into effect about the same time of year, and their enactment bore about the same relation to the end of the Harrison and Cleveland administrations, respectively. In these 29 months the results were a surplus of $23,026,188 under the McKinley law, which it will be remembered was denounced as a "wall" against foreign imports, and a deficit of $126,877,216 under the Wilson law, which was to do wonders for our foreign trade.

The following figures show the total receipts and expenditures of the government during the first twenty-nine months of the Wilson tariff law, as compared with those of the first twenty-nine months of the McKinley law:

McKinley law receipts, first twenty- nine months	$23,026,188.00
Wilson law receipts, first twenty- nine months	$23,026,188.00
McKinley law expenditures, first twenty-nine months	$23,026,188.00
Wilson law expenditures, first twenty- nine months	$126,877,216.00

Difference in favor McKinley
law, $23,026,188.00
Difference in favor Wilson law, $126,877,216.00

Twenty-nine months.....	$23,026,188.00
Surplus.....	$23,026,188.00
Wilson law receipts, first twenty- nine months.....	$23,026,188.00
Wilson law expenditures, first twenty-nine months.....	$126,877,216.00
Deficit.....	$103,851,028.00
McKinley law, first twenty-nine months, surplus.....	$23,026,188.00
Wilson law, first twenty-nine months, deficit.....	$103,851,028.00

Secretary Carlisle, in his recent report to congress, attempted to excuse the shortage in the Wilson law by charging that it was due to extravagant appropriations by congress. A comparison of the receipts under the Wilson and McKinley laws, in corresponding periods of time, however, fails to support this theory. The receipts under the Wilson law in its first twenty-nine months were $738,- 987,775, while those under the Mc-Kinley law in its first twenty-nine months were $885,964,890. Thus it will be seen that the McKinley law actually produced in its first twenty-nine months $146,977,114 more than did the Wilson law in the corresponding period of its history. It will be noticed that the actual receipts under the McKinley law were nearly 20 per cent. greater than those under the Wilson law in the corresponding period in the history of the two acts.
This statement is exceedingly instructive, showing, as it does, the visionary character of Democratic financing and the solidity and reliability of that emanating from Republican sources and based on Republican calculations. If this had been all the mischief done by the Wilson law we could stand it without much complaint, but to this iniquitous legislation is to be traced a large part of the distrust, depression and panic of the past four years.

MR. GAGE'S POLICY.

Lyman J. Gage, who will be secretary of the treasury under the Mc-Kinley administration, and as such practically shape the financial policy of the country, has made a statement in a written interview with the New York "World," which is of especial interest at present.

"Our whole monetary system," says Mr. Gage, "is the result of makeshift legislation and unsystematic compromises. It is time that reform began. In my opinion the greenbacks should be permanently retired.
The silver purchased under the Sherman act should be gradually sold and the treasury notes redeemed and canceled. Some well guarded system of bank note circulation, broader and more elastic than the present national bank act provides should be inaugurated. Such bank notes should be redeemable in gold only."

"Silver certificates, which form nearly one-fifth of the circulating medium of the United States, are dangerous. By their use a volume of inferior money has found an abnormal circulation. They are the most perplexing feature in the much involved problem of our national finances. There is no reason why the government should act as a warehouse for either gold or silver. Such a function is outside its proper limit of action."

"But we are faced by a condition.
The enormous amount of $500,000, 000 of silver, represented by $338, 000,000 in silver certificates, added to the $150,000,000 purchased by the government under the Sherman act, constitutes a standing menace to every business interest. To sum up, the defects of our present currency system are:

1. Confusing heterogeneity which needs simplification.
2. The greenback controversy the principle of paper money, viz:
That every note injected into the commercial system should represent an existing commercial value.
3. The treasury note is a standing evidence of a foolish operation—the creation of a debt for the purchase on a falling market of a commodity for which the purchaser has no use; it lies open to the just charge of being both idiotic and immoral.
4. The national bank note merely conforms to the true principle of paper money, but the unreasonable requirements for security paralyze its efficiency and operate to destroy its elasticity.
5. The silver certificate encourages the use of silver to a larger extent than is consistent with the safe preservation of that metal on a parity with gold."

"Would a national commission help to promote reform?"

"There is reason to hope that it would be of great service in that direction. Such a commission, if rightly selected, would throw a flood of light upon these involved questions. The information it might gather would be of immense value to our people, and would guide us to wise legislation."

"Emotion and sentiment are not safe guides in matters of science. A clear apprehension of true principles will lead to correct action. Reaction will be slow, but it is coming, and it will be of long duration."

At a banquet given the Commercial Club of Chicago in Oct., 1894, Mr. Gage, who was one of the principal speakers, said:

"Through our heterogeneous system the public mind has seemingly lost the power to discriminate between real things and the shadows or signs of things. It is necessary that disguises be pulled aside and that real facts appear. There is, in truth, only one real money, viz: metallic coin. It may be composed of gold or silver. It might be of something else, but it is not. Greenbacks, treasury notes and national bank notes are but promises to pay. In the nature of things they can be nothing more. They pass as money, they perform the functions of money often more conveniently than money itself. Because of this, confusion comes, and we are led astray. Seeing that the greenback is uttered by the government, that it has the legal tender quality imparted to it, the power to pay debts, and that it circulates with all the power of money, discrimination ceases—we call it money —and the idea that government can create money by its sanction or fiat becomes deep rooted in the mind."

SHORT BUT SPIRITED.

Regular Meeting of the Council Held Last Night.

DR. C. A. ISBELL RESIGNS.

Action On the Street and Sewerage Question--The Mayor Downed on Public
Printing.

MR. FRANK M. FISHER PUBLIC PRINTER.

The council held its regular meeting last night, and aside from the regular routine several important matters were discussed and action taken in several significant things.
One thing was the invitation of a professional man to come here from Memphis and district the city for sewers. Another was the election of new members of the board of health and the election of Mr. Frank Fisher public printer.

The public printing discussion was the most spirited of all and Mayor Yeiser made a very uncalculated for unwarranted fight against the wishes of the council, even going so far as to make the ridiculous assertion that if the council elected the public printer he would veto it. The idea of vetoing an election! He lost in the battle, however, and was so excited that he forgot to appoint a policeman again until after the council adjourned.

THE MEETING.
All the members were present except Capt. Farley.
The minutes were read and the usual preliminaries gone through with.

FINANCE COMMITTEE.
Mr. Rineckoff, of the finance committee, presented the following bills, which were allowed:

City scales.....	$12.00
City Engineer account.....	1.20
Electric Light Plant.....	9.22
Lockup account.....	11.80
Street account.....	32.25
City hospital.....	16.32
Post office.....	30.35
City printing.....	1.30
City Engineer account.....	10.10
Fire Department.....	18.90
Laurel St. Co.....	$1.02
Post office.....	60.25
Court costs.....	94.43
Sanitary sewer.....	21.48
St. Bernard College.....	80.00

The wharfmaster's report accompanied by treasurer's receipt for $41 was read and concurred in.

The case of Will Haffey against the city for $5,000 damages received by falling from a rotten fire alarm post, having been settled, the amount of judgment $75 with costs for attorneys and witness fees, etc., being $125.25, was allowed.

A warrant was ordered drawn in favor of Mr. J. T. Donovan for $50.
The regular pay was allowed.

ORDINANCE COMMITTEE.
Chairman Farley being absent,
Col. Husbands read the ordinances.
The ordinance constraining the license ordinance relative to the distribution of advertising matter and bill posting was given second reading.

So much objection was raised that the ordinance was referred back for remodeling.

An ordinance to repeal a section of the ordinance prescribing nuisances was read. Its import and intent was to make it legal to dig and use sink wells, to which considerable objection was recently raised.

Mayor Barnes wanted the matter referred to the board of health for a report.

Councilman Williamson said that the ordinance had never been before the committee, but originated in the Board of Health. He suggested that it be referred to the ordinance committee.

STREET COMMITTEE.
Chairman Carter read a petition from property owners on Fountain avenue from Broadway and Jefferson asking that the grade of the sidewalk be given.

The petition had been referred to the committee at a previous meeting. Mr. Carter moved that the city engineer give them the grade.

Mr. Barnes objected and said the committee had not done its duty in failing to go out and make an examination of the locality. He moved that the committee go out with the city engineer and make a personal inspection. His motion prevailed.

A communication was read from Mrs. Clay Warden relative to property desired by the city for the extension of Adams street from Seventh and Eighth. She desires to sell, and the communication was received and filed.

Chairman Carter read Street Inspector Cosby's report, showing that 130 days work were done on the streets last month.

Halloran's $13,600, making the streets cost the city $18,000 or more.
Mr. Williamson said he was opposed to any more advertising of the matter.

The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a prominent horizontal tear near the bottom center. A dark, irregular stain is visible along the right edge, possibly from water damage or mold. The left edge of the page shows the binding structure, including the inner hinge and some stitching. ## SHORT BUT SPIRITED.

RELIEF COMMITTEE.

Chairman Starks read a statement from Rev. M. Ungerleider relative to his assessment. Chairman Starks recommended that the assessment be reduced $325. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Starks made a statement relative to the assessment of Mrs. Joe Peal. He moved that $1.50 for poll tax be refunded.

SEWERAGE COMMITTEE.

Chairman Barnes stated in behalf of the committee that they had decided to district the city and with this object in view had written to Engineer Elliott, of Memphis, who agreed to come here for $50 and remain until his work is completed, which would probably be in two or three days.

Mayor Yeiser then read from G. A. Carmi at Washington a proposition agreeing to give professional services free.

Mr. Barnes moved that the Memphis gentleman be invited here, and Mr. Williamson favored it. The latter said that in a matter that would cost the city such a vast amount of money, it was advisable to move cautiously and that he was in favor of inviting the Memphis gentleman here and if necessary the other one too. Major Barnes motion prevailed.

Mr. Livingston said it was very gratifying to him to ascertain that so much interest was being taken in the sewerage matter and that he was glad so many people were in favor of it.

FIRE COMMITTEE.

The reports of fire chief and water supply company were received and filed.

NEW BUSINESS.

Councilman Williamson, as chairman of the committee appointed to confer with the butchers, reported that two conferences had been held, and moved that the committee be continued that it may in the future act in conjunction with the ordinance committee and take action that will prove satisfactory to butchers, taxpayers and all.

Mr. Bell read a communication from Supt. Einstein, of the People's Street Railway company, asking for a franchise granting right of way over Fountain avenue. The matter was referred to the ordinance and cemetery committee.

Councilman Bell read the following resignation of Dr. C. A. Isbell, as a member of the board of health: Paducah, Ky., Feb. 1, 1897.

To the Hon. Mayor and Common Council of the City of Paducah: Gentlemen: Some time since your honorable body saw proper, in organizing your board of health, to elect me a member thereof. Since that time I have been the recipient of undue and very unpleasant notoriety, and the inimical spirit displayed toward me by some former members of the board, prompted me to resign.

Mr. Bell read a communication from Supt. Einstein, of the People's Street Railway company, asking for a franchise granting right of way over Fountain avenue. The matter was referred to the ordinance and cemetery committee.

Councilman Bell read the following resignation of Dr. C. A. Isbell, as a member of the board of health: Paducah, Ky., Feb. 1, 1897.

To the Hon. Mayor and Common Council of the City of Paducah: Gentlemen: Some time since your honorable body saw proper, in organizing your board of health, to elect me a member thereof. Since that time I have been the recipient of undue and very unpleasant notoriety, and the inimical spirit displayed toward me by some former members of the board, prompted me to resign.

Capt. Carter mentioned the proposition to increase the salary of the chief of night police. The chief, he said, had to sit in the office all night without having an opportunity, as other officers do, of making a few extra dollars as witness fees. He moved to increase the salary $5 a month, or rather to donate to him an extra $5 for the remainder of the year. The motion was carried by a vote of 6 to 5.

Councilman Kamleiter wanted smoke protectors purchased for the new chemical engines. The amount was but $5, so it was allowed.

A communication was received notifying the city that $30,000 worth of city 4 1/2 per cent. bonds were sold to the Middleton Savings Bank, at Middleton, Conn.

Mr. Rinckleff said that there had been some controversy relative whether the school fund was to receive its 36 per cent. of the back tax collections. Col. Husbands gave it as his opinion that these back taxes went just as any others. The proper order was made.

City Treasurer Donovan made a statement regarding the payment of interest on city bonds, after which a resolution was passed providing that Mr. Donovan be authorized to forward the amount to New York at the meeting just previous to the time the interest falls due.

Mr. Barnes made a motion that Dr. Jewett's resignation as a member of the board of health be accepted and the motion prevailed. Dr. S. B. Simpson was elected in his stead.

Dr. P. G. Reed was nominated to fill the other vacancy in the board and unanimously elected.

Mayor Yeiser read a communication from John H. Zorn about the purchase of ten or more city directories. Mr. Williamson moved that three copies be bought.

Mr. Zorn then made a statement, saying that by his affidavit (for which he charged $50) he had saved it $1200. The council couldn't see how that was done, however.

Mr. Williamson then "roasted" the directory, saying that it was very incorrect and he thought three was enough.

On motion of Capt. Carter five copies were bought.

Mayor Yeiser read a proposition from ex-Chief Hall to keep the city in a first-class sanitary condition, to execute any bond that might be named. It was received and referred to the sanitary committee.

The mayor also read a communication from A. J. Burke about an accident that occurred at Fourth and Harrison streets several months ago, in which the above had a hole knocked in his head. He asked that the matter be squared by appointing him a stationman at the new station. It was received and filed.

A communication was also read from Mr. F. M. Berger about the way his house is situated near the new fire department's location. He offered to sell the city the property for $700. The matter was referred to the fire committee.

Mayor Yeiser then read his veto of the public printing ordinance for several alleged reasons.

Mr. Williamson moved that the ordinance be passed, the veto of the mayor to the contrary notwithstanding. His motion was lost by a vote of 7 to 4, eight votes being required. Those voting for the mayor were Barnes, Rinckleff, Carter and Kamleiter.

Capt. Williamson moved that the council go into the election of a public printer.

Mr. Barnes moved to defer action and require all the newspapers to file affidavits specifying the number of bona fide subscribers. Major Barnes' amendment was lost by a vote of 7 to 4.

Mr. Williamson's motion to elect a public printer was carried by a vote of 7 to 4.

Mr. Williamson nominated Mr. F. M. Fisher, of the SCS, for public printer.

Mayor Barnes nominated the evening "News."

The mayor said he would veto the action. He said he didn't believe it was legal, but Col. Husbands said it was. And the mayor was informed that he couldn't veto an election.

Mr. Barnes withdrew the "News" from the competition.

The question then came up whether or not a man with any stock in a newspaper could vote for the election of an individual as public printer.

Col. Husbands said the public printer must be a person and not a paper. That the public printer was not a paper or a printing office, but a person. He gave it as his opinion that previous elections of public printers, where papers were elected, were illegal.

The vote resulted in Mr. Fisher receiving eleven votes.

The council then adjourned, but the mayor, in his excitement, had forgotten to appoint a policeman to fill the vacancy occasioned by the dismissal of Chief Hall, but not for the same position. The vote to adjourn was reconsidered and Mayor Yeiser appointed Mr. Frank Smedley, the appointment being ratified.

HELD OVER.

Pinckney Childers Seems to be Guilty.

Charged With Stealing $40 From From Wm. Rummel.

Pinckney Childers, a wayward boy who has been in trouble before but none of such a serious nature, was held over in Judge Sanders' court this morning on a charge of stealing $40 from William Rummel, who was out on a little spree last Friday night. He lost $60, he claimed, but Marshal Collins found what disposition he had made of $20, leaving $40 missing.

The evidence of Rummel showed nothing except that he had $60 in new ten dollar bills, the last thing he remembered. When he wound up at the city hall about midnight he had but $5 and some small change.

Childers attempted to change two new ten dollar bills Saturday and was arrested.

He was seen with Rummel, but claimed this morning that the money was given him by Fred Romine, a cigar maker, as "hush" money. The story was so palpably false that it only made the case worse against Childers.

Romine denied that he gave any money to Childers, and Judge Sanders, in reviewing the case, said he hoped the young man would be able to prove his innocence in the circuit court, but that the evidence is now all against him. He was held in the sum of $200.

Childers could not execute bond, and was remanded to jail. It is possible that he may yet succeed in executing it, however.

Manager Waters Departes.

Manager Lew Waters, his daughter and two other members of the Windsor Theater Stock Co., left the city a day or two ago for unknown parts in an insolvent condition, judging from reports.

Waters had played in hard luck ever since his advent into the city, his wife having come here only a few days after his theater was opened and forced him to sign papers enabling her to get a divorce, at the same time threatening him if he refused to comply with her request.

She informed Marshal Collins at the time that the only objection she had to her husband was his shiftless disposition and fondness for other women. She procured her papers and left.

Waters was a pretty good sort of a fellow, but did not meet with any success here. It is understood that he did not leave without appraising his creditors of his intentions.

The Windsor Theater will probably be reopened about Thursday with new people.
